Frankie & Benny's

NEW YORK ITALIAN RESTAURANT & BAR

THE

STORY

Legend has it that Frankie Giuliani was 10 years old when, with his Mamma and Poppa, he left Sicily and landed at Ellis Island, New York in 1924. They moved in with relatives in Little Italy. From the home country Poppa brought a little money and a lot of ambition.

It was no surprise then, when the family opened a restaurant within a year. It was Mamma's home-style cooking and special recipe sauces that kept the regulars comin' back for more. In 1953 Poppa retired and Frankie took over the business with his ol' school pal Benny.

RED SAUCE
REVOLUTION

It was the combination of all the bold American flavours they found stateside mixed with the traditional Italian classics where a new generation of Italian American cooking was born. It's known as the Red Sauce Revolution!

These flavours are hearty, generous, flavoursome and fresh, but most importantly, tasty. Look out for our signature ingredients inspired by the Red Sauce Revolution like our Salsa Verde, Salsa Rossa and our Black Treacle BBQ sauce.

Salsa Verde

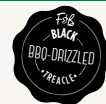

An authentic herby pesto blend stolen from our cousins in Northern Italy.

Salsa Rossa

Our signature salsa influenced by Neapolitan kitchens in Southern Italy. A fresh & zesty blend of sun blushed tomatoes, roast red peppers, mint & lemon zest.

Black Treacle BBQ Sauce

Our signature smoky & sweet upstate BBQ sauce with a hint of Black Treacle.
