

THE GARFUNKEL'S GUIDE TO THE

O2 ARENA

Following the closure of the Millennium Experience at the end of 2000, the Millennium Dome was leased for redevelopment as an entertainment complex. It is now one of the largest arenas in Europe. It can also boast being one of the busiest arenas in the world, providing more music concerts and events than most other venues.

ICONIC LANDMARK

The O2 arena has become one of the UK's most iconic landmarks with its unique dome shape exterior.

OLYMPICS

The arena was one of the key venues for the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games.

20,000

BUSY ARENA

The O2 can house around 20,000 people and is one of the busiest music venues in Europe.

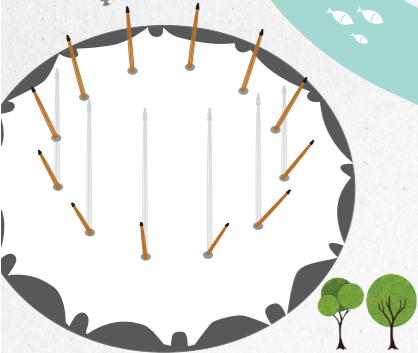

VAST SPACE

It would take 3.8 billion pints of beer to fill up all the space in The O2!

SUPPORT TOWERS

One of the most well known features of the O2 Arena is the yellow support domes. Standing 100m-high they represent one for each month of the year, or each hour of the clock face, representing the role played by Greenwich Mean Time.

TICKET SALES

In 2010, The O2 was named the world's busiest music venue for the third year in a row, selling 2,349,252 tickets.
