Wines

Argentina is a wine producing country. All of our wines, with the exception of Champagne, are from Argentina.

Argentina is the 5th largest producer of wine in the world, in terms of volume. In 1999 we took the decision to make our list all Argentine, culminating in buying our own, perfectly formed small vineyard in 2007, situated in the old district of Lunlunta in Mendoza.

Our link to Argentina is very strong, the result of building relationships with producers big and small, and all in their own way, family owned.

Our link to Argentina is very strong, the result of building relationships with producers big and small, and all in their own way, family owned.

The vast majority of wine production takes place in the majestic Andes, covering a distance of over 2000km and altitudes ranging from 250 to 3111m above sea level.

Many of our wines will throw a harmless light deposit, since they are neither filtered or fined. Some vintages may differ from those advertised.

Viña Patricia Malbec

At Gaucho we love Malbec so much, that in 2007 we purchased our own vineyard. Tucked away by the Rio Mendoza, amidst old vines and many small, old wineries, lies the district of Lunlunta, Mendoza. Our vineyard is typical of this region, being planted in 1929, complimented with old olive trees. Viña Patricia is made by our friend Mauricio Lorca.
